

77-15-7 Statute of limitations and speedy trial -- Effect of incompetency of defendant.

- (1) The statute of limitations is tolled during any period in which the defendant is adjudicated incompetent to proceed.
- (2) Any period of time during which the defendant has been adjudicated incompetent and any period during which he is being evaluated for competency may not be computed in determining the defendant's speedy trial rights.

Repealed and Re-enacted by Chapter 162, 1994 General Session